About Me

Hello! I am Rohit Barwahe, a passionate learner exploring the realms of programming with C, C++, and Java. My goal is to build efficient and creative solutions through code.
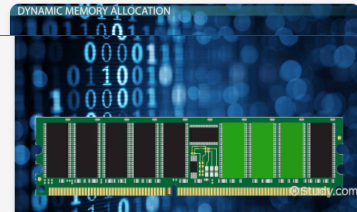

Projects

Project 1

A simple calculator application using C++ to perform basic arithmetic operations.

Project 2

A text-based menu-driven program in Java for managing a library system.

Project 3

A beginner's guide to dynamic memory allocation in C with practical examples.
